BIG CLAIMS MADE BY BOTH SIDES

Convention Atmosphere Is Decidedly Hazy; Job-Chasers in Trouble

By SAMUEL G. BLYTHE

(Copyright by Samuel G. Blythe)

CHICAGO, June 17.—Inasmuch as there is a very large supply of extremely competent seethers and boilers in the city, Sunday was largely devoted to seething and boiling.

Sedulous seethers were constantly stepping on one's feet in the hotel lobbies and seething into one's face, and buoyant boilers boiled up, boiled out and boiled over, here, there and everywhere. It was the same upstairs in the rooms that shelter the professional seethers. They were not seething in view of the spectators, but they were doing a lot more of it, for, as is well known, they have a lot more of it to do. The net result of the day's ebullition was plenty of bubbles and steam, but nothing more tangible. When the sergeants and corporals who are running this show, or are being run by it, which is closer to the fact, closed down for the night, they were exactly the same case as they were in the morning when they had three eggs. Not one of them knew what is going to happen, and not one of them did not claim to know exactly what is in prospect.

Number one of the political aphorisms is, "Claim everything." The men who are in charge of the various affairs of the various candidates are ably aphoristical. They claim everything. Then, following out political precepts, they concede nothing. Thus the eager seeker after information learns that Taft is sure to win, that Roosevelt is sure to win, that Cummins and La Follette are sure to win, and that there is nothing in it but Hughes or Borah, or some one else, and casting a general average, the result obtained is that somebody is certain to win, but nobody in Chicago knows who that somebody will be.

THERE WAS MISINFORMATION A PLENTY

It was hot in the morning, but in the afternoon the breeze came skylarking in from the lake and wiled predictors and solvers and compromisers, and the compromised and prophets and seers and fanatics and fantasists charged up amazingly and the mass of misinformation that was handed about in places where these persons gathered would dam Niagara.

This was the way of it: A report came that a Taft Georgia delegate had switched to Roosevelt, a man heard this report. Presently he told it to another man. That man came along and told another man that half a dozen Georgia delegates, he says he heard on the highest possible authority, have switched to Roosevelt. The third man made the number a dozen, and the fourth man galloped down Peacock alley in the annex shouting: "The stampede has begun, the stampede has begun!"

Still there were one or two definite things. Tim Woodruff of Brooklyn, after fluttering about four weeks, finally lighted in the Roosevelt cote and claimed he brought four other

COLORADO ABANDONS CHANNEL

Indians Fear Detour Is Warning of Disaster From the Pagan Gods

Communication by Telephone With Threatened Towns Is Cut Off

NEEDLES, Cal., June 17.—Abandoning its old channel almost completely, the Colorado river, according to a report received here today, has thrown itself upon a barren stretch of sand dunes at the great bend in the stream in the northwestern part of Arizona. The change in course occurred Sunday.

News of the big break was carried to Mojave by Indians, who thought the strange change in the channel was a warning of impending disaster from pagan gods.

According to the information the river now is making a detour of many miles. Most of the water is returning to the old channel farther down. A branch of the stream, however, is pouring in a great flood into a sink which is expected to become a great inland lake. Another break in the levee has resulted in the inundation of cotton lands in Mojave valley from a new point.

Temporary communication with the town of Randalls, below Parker, has been cut off. The last word from that place was that the flood was only a short distance away. Blythe is still under water 5 feet deep.

Aeroplane Crashes To Earth With Four

Only Mechanician Injured at Angers Race; Two Others Meet Disaster.

ANGERS, France, June 17.—Soon after the start of the Angers-Chollet-Saumur aeroplane race today, Aviator Allard's machine, carrying four passengers, broke down and fell to the earth. The fall was from a low altitude and the only one injured was Allard's mechanician, who suffered a broken leg.

Aviator de Bussy, while flying from Chartres to Angers to start in the race, was hurled to the ground when his aeroplane collapsed and was seriously injured internally. His passenger, M. Gosfeng, broke both legs.

Sixteen aviators started in the event. They were to fly three times around the triangle formed by the three towns, the distance to be covered being about 282 1/2 miles. The prizes are two equal amounts of $6000 each. Twelve passengers, including the four in Allard's machine, were carried at the start.

Flood Conditions Still Bad in South

Great Area of Fertile Land Inundated by Break and Food is Needed.

NEW ORLEANS, June 17.—Flood waters will continue in several southern Louisiana parishes until autumn unless the present determination not to close the break in the Mississippi levee at Hymelie is changed. This will mean that a great area of fertile land will afford no crops this year and that hundreds of persons must depend on their neighbors for sustenance or seek other fields.

A representative of the New Orleans flood relief committee returned here today from the inundated district. He said more than one thousand are in immediate need of rations.

Jussy Is Winner of $10,000 Prix at Paris

Madame Baillier's Horse Captures Race at St. Cloud.

PARIS, June 17.—The Prix Du President de la Republique, $10,000, distance one mile and four and one-half furlongs, was won today at Saint Cloud by Madame Baillier's Jussy. President Fallières and Myron T. Herrick, United States Ambassador to France, were present.

WARSHIP IS SENT TO CUBA

Nebraska Sails From Key West for Guantanamo This Morning

Antomanchi Fails to Make Threatened Attack on Foreigners on Island

KEY WEST, Fla., June 17.—The battleship Nebraska sailed at 9 o'clock today for Guantanamo, Cuba.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Although the time limit allowed by the Cuban rebel leader, Julio Antomanchi, for all foreigners to abandon their homes in the neighborhood of El Cobre expired last night, the state department early today had no report of any attacks.

American Consul Holiday has reported that most of the territory in question has been depopulated as a result of the proclamation and there is little opportunity for the negro leader to execute his threat. The date set for the attack on foreigners coincides with other movements of the same kind which have come to the knowledge of the government here.

SOLDIERS WATCH REBELS.

In view of the fact that the Cuban general in command in Oriente has distributed about 500 guerrillas and soldiers in the dangerous zone, while nearly 200 American marines are entrenched at El Cobre and vicinity, it is thought the danger to life has been greatly reduced.

The government is watching the situation in Cuba very closely and everything is being kept in a state of preparedness for the movement of the expeditionary force of 5000 troops which was ordered ready several days ago.

REBEL OUT FOR BLOOD.

SANTIAGO, Cuba, June 17.—The insurgent leader, Julio Antomanchi, who on Saturday ordered all the whites to leave the vicinity of El Cobre, issued a proclamation today stating that he would hang any person approaching him with a suggestion that he should surrender.

INSURGENT LEADER KILLED.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Admiral Usher from Guantanamo cabled the navy department today a confirmation of the report that General Estévez, the Cuban insurgent leader, had been killed and that General La Coste, the patriotic general had been captured by the government forces. Officials here believe this blow practically will terminate the revolution, though some brigands may continue to pillage and loot for some time.

20 Killed, 16 Hurt In Train Collision

LINKOPING, Sweden, June 17.—Twenty persons were killed and sixteen injured in a collision last night between a mail train going to Stockholm and a freight train at Malmalastation. Among the victims was a daughter of the late August Strindberg, the novelist.

The property known as the Dalton Foundry, at Tenth and Cedar streets, which has long been a subject of dispute, was this morning conveyed by deed from the Henry Dalton & Sons Company to the Southern Pacific Railroad Company. The consideration in the deed is set at $1, but it is understood that the company paid a big figure for the prop-

HADLEY HINTS AT DRASIC TACTICS

CHICAGO, June 17.—Speaking for the Roosevelt forces today, Governor Hadley of Missouri, chosen floor leader for the Colonel, declared that no contested delegates seated by the act of the Republican National Committee should sit in the convention.

"How can you help it?" he was asked.

"We are not unmasking our batteries today," he replied. "No delegate with stolen credentials shall have a vote in this convention if we can help it. By tomorrow we shall have our plans completed."

"What will you do?"

"Nothing that is not regular and American; nothing that will not be approved by the American people."

CHICAGO, June 17.—In response to continued claims of accessions by Colonel Roosevelt among the Southern delegates, Director McKinley of the Taft forces issued a statement today asserting that the Taft forces were holding firmly and that Roosevelt had succeeded in securing only two Southern delegates.

A statement by Governor Frear of Hawaii, denying rumors that the Hawaiian delegation would not be for President Taft was given out at the Taft headquarters.

Contested Delegates Barred, Says Hadley

CHICAGO, June 17.—Speaking for the Roosevelt forces today, Governor Hadley of Missouri, chosen floor leader for the Colonel, declared that no contested delegate seated by the act of the Republican national committee should sit in the convention.

"How can you help it?" he was asked.

"We are not unmasking our batteries today," he replied. "No dele-teries today."

"No delegates are being seated in several quarters to induce him to return."

DALTON FOUNDRY PLANT SOLD TO SOUTHERN PACIFIC

Railroad Company Can Now Eliminate the Famous West Oakland Death Curve

The property known as the Dalton Foundry, at Tenth and Cedar streets, which has long been a subject of dispute, was this morning conveyed by deed from the Henry Dalton & Sons Company to the Southern Pacific Railroad Company. The consideration in the deed is set at $1, but it is understood that the company paid a big figure for the property, as by its purchase "Death Curve" may be eliminated.

The deed bore the signature of H. N. Dalton, as president of the company, and E. N. Dalton, as secretary.

While the sale included a 400-foot frontage along the railroad right-of-way, the Dalton Company reserved a narrow strip of the building, a foot at one end and five feet at the other, as basis for a continuation of the suit against the city, which is still in court.

All other property comprising the plant of the Dalton Foundry is acquired by the railroad company.

The elimination of Death Curve will halve generally with relief, as it has long constituted a menace to life and a source of constant worry to the railroad company.

Cyclone in Oklahoma Levels Sixty Residences

GUTHRIE, Okla., June 17.—Sixty or more houses in the village of Kaylo Oklahoma, were smashed by a terrific gale last night. Only two persons were hurt, according to news received here this afternoon. The message declared that not a building in the village remained standing.

Aged Hayward Man Killed When Horses Run Away

H. H. Weymouth, an aged resident of Hayward, was almost instantly killed shortly after 9 o'clock this morning when a team which he was driving to the telephone station ran away, colliding with a telephone pole. His body was removed to the mortuary.

Delegates Are Among 100 Hurt in Collision

CHICAGO, June 17.—More than 100 passengers, including several convention delegates from Georgia and visitors to the convention, were passengers in the train more or less injured and cut today in the collision.

of a Pennsylvania passenger train and a train of empty cars just outside the Union passenger station. All the passengers in the train were shocked or bruised by the collision.

LODGE ANGELES, June 17.—There was no session today of the trial of Clarence S. Darrow for alleged jury bribery owing to the illness of Attorneys Earl Rogers and H. H. April of the defense. A continuance was taken until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

HUGHES' NAME IS HEARD AT CHICAGO

ALL IS UNCERTAINTY AT CONVENTION CITY
Almost Anything May Happen, With Human Paradox on Job

Brooklyn birds of passage with him. Mr. Woodruff said he could not stand the high-handed methods of the national committee, being a sensitive young person, and having his nerves wrecked by the presence of "Bill" Barnes, also of New York, as a Taft leader. There was some other shifting back and forth, but the net result of the day was that while one side may have gained some and one side lost some, neither side knew exactly what it has and neither will know until the first test vote comes.

COLONEL ROOSEVELT SCINTILLATES.

The star of the day's performance was Colonel Roosevelt. He sat most of the time in his room in the annex and saw the boys as they were brought to him. Nor has the Colonel lost any of the magnetism by which he used to make his callers at the White House, think they were at that moment the exact persons of all the world's population he most loved and most desired to see.

"Of course," he said, "glad to see you," with hearty emphasis on "you," and "I know you," with hard-bearing down on "you," and so on, and he kept a lot of them ribbed up for the fight. The Taft fellows mourned at the spectacle. It was terrible, they said, to see an ex-President of the United States actually canvassing for votes, a sure sign that the republic is headed toward the reefs. The Roosevelt fellow who has been torn with certain international jealousies and has suffered from leadership that had more leaders than there were followers, said: "It will be great," and cheerfully turned the burdens of the campaign over to the Colonel, hoping he will pull them through.

The near-treason association that had nearly completed its labors at a late hour Saturday night by standing by "Sammie" Perkins in the State of Washington contests, took an excursion to a country club, but they were a worried set. They had performed according to plans and specifications and now they are wondering if the actors they have selected will speak the lines assigned to them or will decide to do a little impromptu acting of their own when they get in the light. They do not know, nor did it cheer them up any to have a Montana man tell them the story of the time the late Wilbur F. Sanders of that State rode into a town years ago, where the citizens were about to have a lynching. Sanders strode into the crowd. "Stop this!" he shouted. "Stop this! There has been too much of this high-handed business in this State, I protest. This must not go on. This man must not be hanged in this summary manner. Give him a fair and impartial trial and then hang him."

CLAIM 565 VOTES FOR TAFT.

The Taft men stuck sturdily to their figures. They said at the least Taft has 565 votes, will be named on the first ballot and that Root will be made temporary chairman by fully 600 votes for him.

Mr. Root arrived, bringing with him his well-known refrigeration machine and making his own ice whenever approached for his opinion of the situation. Mr. Root was held to contain certain views of the President to be presented to the Taft leaders at the proper time. He saw many leaders. They also saw him. That was about the sum total of the meetings, so far as settling anything is concerned. Mr. Root has a speech with him that is expected to make the welkin ring on Tuesday, a commodious welkin having been provided for that purpose by the committee of arrangements.

However, Sub-Boss William Flinn of the Roosevelt forces, while appreciating highly Mr. Root's ability as a welkin-ringer, was not so sure it would be well to employ Root's talents in that direction. It is the idea of Mr. Flinn to start something in the convention at the time Mr. Root's name is submitted to the assemblage by Victor Rosewater at the national committee ideal of a temporary chairman, and suggest in a clarion voice: "It would be well to have a tried and true Roosevelt man in that job, precipitating thereby a struggle that should have definite information, in it as to the strength of the two leading candidates. Mr. Flinn's idea has not met with full approval of the other Roosevelt leaders. There is a feeling it might be well to postpone the clash until later in the convention. Advocates of a compromise candidate favor postponement. They say the thing to do is to select Mr. Root, listen to his speech and then talk adjournment, hoping by that time order may begin to shooe its well-combed head up through chaos and that there may be found a way to save the grand old party.

Several eminent persons on the ground favor this plan, having adjusted lightning rods and placed themselves in the most conspicuous lightning-infested spots they can find. One silver-tongued young orator is rehearsing a speech by which he hopes to cross-of-gold-and-crown-of-thorns the convention, if the opportunity is offered. Politics, as has been remarked, is an unselfish and genial pursuit.

PATHOS IN PLIGHT OF JOB-HOLDERS.

The situation is not without its pathos. Consider the dire straits of the Office-Holders' Union and the band-wagon boys. They are pacing back and forth, wringing their hands and beating their fevered brows. Originally the office-holders and the men who want to hold office were with Taft. Then from purely patriotic methods and because they desired to be on the ticket with Roosevelt, thinking it might help them subsequently to get on the pay-roll, they shifted to Roosevelt. Now they are torn with conflicting emotions, not knowing whether to jump back to Taft, who may win, or stick to Roosevelt, who may lose.

But sad as is their dilemma, they are enjoying a holy calm when compared to the band-wagon boys. They want to jump. They must jump now. They do not know where to jump. They buttonhole every new-comer and harass every man who has been on the ground a day. They clamor for information and they are met with the statement there is none. If they do not land they are lost and they may be lost, anyhow. Time is pretty nearly up with them. They are about to hear the ringing of the last bell.

CCompromise TALK IS ONLY TALK.

No sadder spectacle has ever been seen at a Republican convention than this concourse of patriotic American citizens to decide as to what particular candidatorial slant their patriotism shall take. There is much talk of compromise, but it is only talk presented by three or four citizens, each of whom thinks vindictively, if there could be a frank expression of opinion from the Taft leaders and the Roosevelt leaders, aside from the principals. It would be found that sixty or seventy percent of them favor the admittance of the two leading candidates and the selection of Roosevelt for the sake of the party. There might be a few individuals who would talk this way than Taft men, and a few individuals showing on both sides. So it may fall out that on Monday night, say, or on Tuesday night, if the Roosevelt forces lose their temporary chairman fight and do not bolt in consequence, there may be a gathering away down in the engine room at the Congress Hotel, where the subject will be discussed openly instead of whispered, as it is now.

The idea is growing, nothing may come of it, of course, but there are a large number of Republicans who think more of the Republican party than they think of any individual or set of individuals, and some of this kind are in Chicago.

WHAT WILL HAPPEN? WHO KNOWS?

But that is in the future. The facts of the present have not changed since Saturday. Colonel Roosevelt is leading in person and the Taft leaders have stiffened in consequence of his coming. Both sides make glowing claims and neither side can tell what will happen. There is a constant realignment. Roosevelt men nipp'd out a Taft man now and then. Now the Taft men have ways of their own for getting even. When night came on Sunday neither side had gained nor lost much. It is still a speculative stand-off, an open proposition. Nobody need be surprised if Taft wins by a handful of votes. Nobody need be surprised if Roosevelt wins in that case. Nobody need be surprised if Roosevelt wins, in which case the Taft men will do the bolting at the polls. There may be two conventions in the same hall. There may be an inconclusive ballot or two and a third man proposed and selected. Anything is possible, for conditions defy analysis. They are not subject to the usual tests. The human paradox has projected himself into the fight and he has created a situation as paradoxical as he is. Wherefore, it is up to everybody to be perfectly calm and await the march of events.

OKLAHOMANS RECOGNIZE POSSIBILITY OF A BOLT

Delegates Defeat a Resolution Binding Themselves to Nominee

CHICAGO, June 17.—The Oklahoma delegation recognized today the possibility of a bolt and in caucus, by a vote of 18 to 2, defeated a resolution binding itself to support the nominee of the convention for President and Vice-President.

Caucus results in the New Mexico delegation gave permanent organization to E. A. Chacon; rules and order, Gregory Page; credentials, Hugo Seaborg; platform and resolutions, H. O. Burson; national committee, Solomon Luns; to notify presidential nominee, William Jones; to notify vice-presidential nominee, Hugh Eldridge.

Denounce Committee in Brief Statement

CHICAGO, June 17.—Members and members-elect of the Republican national committee and state committees, chairman of their respective delegations, in a public statement today denounced the action of the national committee in making up the temporary roll call of the national convention.

The protestants who signed the protest were Henry E. Wasson, chairman Pennsylvania Republican state committee; Walter F. Brown, chairman Ohio state committee; Borden F. Whiting, national committeeman-elect of New Jersey; William Allen White, national committeeman-elect of Kansas; Meyer Lissner, chairman California Republican state committee and national committeeman-elect, R. B. Hayes, national committeeman-elect of Nebraska; Thomas Thorson, national committeeman of South Dakota; A. C. Caswell, national committeeman-elect of Minnesota; Thomas K. Niederauhaus, national committeeman-elect of Missouri; Richmond Pearson Hobson, national committeeman of North Carolina; George C. Priestly, national committeeman of Oklahoma; William Seymour Edwards, national committeeman-elect of West Virginia, and Frank Knox, chairman Michigan state committee for permanent organization.

At a meeting of the Ohio delegation a resolution was adopted authorizing A. L. Garland of Elvira to cast 24 of the Ohio 48 votes for Roosevelt and all preparations in the program of the Roosevelt forces.

NEBRASKANS MEET.

Nebraska's Roosevelt delegation chose N. Love for permanent organization; for rules and order, C. A. Moore; credentials, H. E. Sackett; platform and resolutions, E. L. King; national committee, R. B. Howell; to notify presidential nominee, J. T. Hubbard; to notify vice-presidential nominee, J. C. Adams.

The Connecticut delegation formally selected for Taft and the Pennsylvania delegation passed resolution endorsing Colonel Roosevelt.

At the caucus of the Nebraska delegation, following resolutions in nomination of Victor Rosewater for his action as chairman of the national committee were adopted.

The Republicans of Nebraska have been humiliated by the actions of our national committeemen. Mr. Victor Rosewater, who has been personally repudiated by the Republicans of our state and who did not represent the wishes of the vast majority of the Republican party of Nebraska in the deliberations of the national committee.

The New Hampshire delegates in caucus named Fred W. Estabrook as the state member of the national committee; W. B. Hadley was named by the West Virginia delegates. Harry Shumard was chosen by the Indiana delegation.

In Barker by Al., Charles A. Baker by Connecticut, Alvin H. Martin by Virginia; L. Lewis by Wisconsin; Walter F. Brown by Ohio; William Flinn by Pennsylvania; Charles D. Warner by Michigan.

The selections made by the caucus of the Washington state delegation are:

gates with stolen credentials shall have a vote in this convention if we can help it. By tomorrow we shall have our plans completed."

"What will you do?"

"Nothing that is not regular and American, nothing that will not be approved by the American people."

The Roosevelt leaders apparently were not disturbed by the announcement of the Taft adherents that they would successfully block the move for the adoption of a substitute roll of the delegates.

They asserted with confidence that the convention would not be organized "with fraudulent delegates in the places that should be occupied by those regularly elected or chosen."

DIXON IS CERTAIN.

Senator Dixon, campaign manager for Theodore Roosevelt emphatically declared today that the temporary roll call of the convention to be held in the city would be rejected by the majority of at least 42 and that Senator Borah would be chosen temporary chairman over Senator Root by a larger majority.

"We checked up our list of delegates known to be for Roosevelt and found unquestionably that we would control the convention by a clean majority of 42 votes," said Senator Dixon. "That claim I make after eliminating a lot of counts that have come in that look favorable but are not claimed by us as certain."

"Will you start the fight as soon as the convention opens?"

"We are going to fight from the jump and will elect the temporary chairman by a majority larger than forty-two."

The visit of Chairman Rosewater to the rooms of Colonel Roosevelt at midnight was not known to Rosewater's associates on the national committee until this morning. They sought the idea that Rosewater had sought to make peace with the Roosevelt forces.

IMPORTANT FACTOR.

At the Taft headquarters Representative Martin E. Olmsted of Pennsylvania was an important factor. He announced that he would be at the right hand of Chairman Rosewater from the moment the convention opens to keep him straight on parliamentary procedure and the Taft leaders said they would be as well rounded with Roosevelt as with the Taft choice for the temporary chairman.

It was said at the conference that the Taft men did not care how early the Roosevelt forces started that inevitable conflict.

"The temporary roll of delegates as arranged by the national committee will organize the convention," said Director McKinley.

It was stated also that the Taft leaders were prepared for any kind of a move and that they were well acquainted with the various plans contemplated by the Roosevelt headquarters.

The source of their information was not explained.

Representative Olmsted spent the forenoon in consultation with a number of expert parliamentarians, who after going over the precedents reached the conclusion that the temporary roll as prepared by the national committee must be regarded as inviolable until superseded by a new roll prepared by the convention itself, after action by the committee on credentials, and he will so advise the chair.

STUBBORN RESISTANCE.

It is not expected by Taft's friends that there will be an effort to challenge the report of the national committee until the vote comes on the election of a temporary chairman, but if there should be, it will be met with stubborn resistance and any motion to challenge by a motion to lay on the table. There are precedents in the proceeding of Representatives against any interruption of a roll call and Rosewater will be advised that none should be entertained.

Among those present at the conference were Senators Root and Penrose and Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler. Senator Root was especially emphatic in the contention that the temporary roll as prepared by the national committee must be recognized as the only body capable of performing the early duties of the convention. To depart from this rule, he said, would be equivalent to an appeal to the will of the world-at-large and would not stand under any reasonable parliamentary usage.

An effort to expedite business as quickly as possible, but it is contended that there will be no departure from the recognized practice of parliamentary bodies.

Senator Penrose estimates that Root will get at least 600 votes for temporary chairman. There will be no attempt to prevent a full vote on the question of his election, but the Taft people expressed determination to have the point decided by the convention as made up by the national committee.

Roosevelt and Taft leaders prepared this morning for the last struggle before the gavel falls tomorrow at the Roosevelt's formal opening of the national convention.

Leaders whose lives have been spent in the "game" brought into view every artifice known to modern politics in their almost frantic efforts to swing the balance to Colonel Roosevelt or to President Taft. Men who are doggedly standing their ground were told what might happen to them, not only this year or next, but four years from now, unless they agreed to the program mapped out by the leaders.

It was no place for the weak. Keen eyes and trained ears searched for the first signs of panic or a break at any point, and at the last, when tightened those who were subjected to a merciless fire. Running through it all was the constantly recurring fact of the presence of Col.

It was said that Senator Borah was not consulted in regard to making the race against Senator Root for the temporary chairmanship, and that the Idaho man is unprepared with a speech. For this reason he asked to be relieved from officiating at tonight's Roosevelt mass meeting, but the Roosevelt leaders insisted that he appear at the theater.

TWO PLATFORMS READY.

In accordance with two candidates for temporary chairman, the Taft and Roosevelt forces prepared two platforms for submission to the convention. The work of preparation of the platforms was continued throughout the day.

James H. Gerhard, in discussing the platform to be submitted by the Roosevelt organization, declared that he would be progressive throughout.

Californians Name Committee Members

CHICAGO, June 17.—The California delegation has chosen its members for the various convention committees. Francis J. Heney was selected for the credentials committee, former Governor George C. Pardee, committee on rules; Chester R. Rowell, committee on resolutions and Miller Lissner, for the national committee to succeed George E. Knight.

either of two drivers, one ordering it to the left and the other to the right, or whether it will twist its trunk about each of the drivers in turn and hurl each of them into the air.

The Taft forces stated that Senator Clarence Clark of Wyoming had been agreed upon for chairman of the committee on rules, and that Congressman Olmstead of Pennsylvania had been selected as parliamentarian of the convention. There were no changes in the other committees places previously mentioned.

This connection it became apparent that the division of delegates between Colonel Roosevelt and President Taft on the question of the nomination does not hold on any other question to come before the convention. This was shown plainly by the attitude of the Virginia delegation. Although practically all for the nomination of President Taft, nine of the Virginia delegates declared they would not be organized with fraudulent delegates in the places that should be occupied by those regularly elected or chosen."

United States Senator, W. S. Kenyon of Iowa was so enthusiastic with regard to the Cummings cause that he said the Iowa man would be the choice for the nomination on the first ballot were there no instructions.

John J. Hannan of Senator La Follette's headquarters declared that the Wisconsin senator's chances never appeared better.

Roosevelt delegation from the state of Washington who were refused recognition by the national committee held a caucus last night and decided to press their fight on the floor of the convention. Senator Miles Poindexter was chosen chairman of the delegation and the following resolution of protest was sent to Victor Rosewater, acting chairman of the national committee:

"Your action on the contest from the state of Washington has deprived our state of representation at the Republican national convention and denies the people their rights. The persons you unjustly do not recognize as the true Republicans do not submit to your biased, prejudiced and unwarranted decision. We will take the necessary steps to present the matter to the Republican national convention and before the people of the country. No candidate whose nomination depends upon the methods used by you can carry our state."

Bryan, as Reporter, Seeks Steam Roller

CHICAGO, June 17.—William J. Bryan was a center of attraction in the pre-convention scene yesterday, and though appearing at the headquarters of leaders of a rival party as a newspaper reporter, he was given a demonstration by the throng of visitors and delegates.

Bryan had a personal chat with Theodore Roosevelt late in the day, after he had interviewed Senator Dixon, the Roosevelt campaign director, and Managing Director McKinley of the Taft bureau. As he entered the hotel lobby elbowing his way through the crowd some one shouted: "Hurrah for Bryan" and the Nebraskan was given a demonstrative welcome. He was cheered for several minutes and continuous cries of "speech, speech" came from all parts of the lobby.</p on Eve of the Main

panned the two women delegates from the golden state to the convention, at their headquarters last night, declared the suffragists were more interested in studying politics than they were in gaining admittance to the convention.

"We have just been given the right to vote," said Miss Williams, "and of course we are excited about it. We would all like to be admitted into the convention hall, but that is only a side issue with us. We are here primarily to mingle with politicians and learn politics and we can study that without seeking the real excitement of the convention hall. As many of us as can gain admission to the hall will be in the galleries when the nomination for President is made and those who are fortunate enough to be there will tell the rest of us about it."

Miss Williams and other of her women friends who had come from California pointed with admiration to Mrs. J. W. Blaney, one of the two women delegates from California, who was in the party.

Colonel's Arm Wilts Under Much Pressure

CHICAGO, June 17.—Colonel Roosevelt's reception to the Roosevelt delegates and alternates today was the most strenuous experience he has gone through since he reached Chicago. Several times before the apparently endless string of enthusiasts had passed him, he cried out "Not another man; not another one."

Once he fished out another immigrant protest against the action of the national committee of the California contested delegate case. Greeting a party of California delegates he declared:

"There was never anything like it. That's the kind of action that makes revolutions," he exclaimed.

ROOSEVELT GIVES UP.

Three flashlight photographs, taken within 10 feet of Colonel Roosevelt helped to increase his nervousness and make the long procession more than his patience could endure. Finally he declared:

"Hold the line as it is and I'll pass along it."

Policemen did the best they could to hold up the column with a body guard of policemen and plain clothes assistants who hustled to the back end of the room, up a private staircase and around through the hotel corridors to the room of the Illinois delegation where an "experience meeting" was being held behind closed doors.

As Colonel Roosevelt was forcibly propelled into this room, policemen pushed the crowd back, blocking progress down the stairway and stopped every one.

The declaration of the guardian of the Illinois headquarters, that "only Illinois delegates could get in" dispersed the crowd temporarily.

Wants Representation Based on Votes Cast

CHICAGO, June 17.—Governor Hadley of Missouri, completed last night a comprehensive plan to cut down the apportionment of the Southern states. It is his intention to submit it to the Republican national convention if it meets the approval of other leaders.

He would have the basis of representation in all States based on the actual vote cast rather than on the population. The plan would affect New York in the same proportion as it would Louisiana.

Hadley believes that the Republicans who go to the polls are entitled to have representatives in the national party councils.

His proposal is that two delegates to the national convention be allowed in each district where twenty-five per cent or more of the total party vote in that district is cast.

Districts that cast less than 25 per cent, but more than 10 per cent, he believes, should be given only one vote and any district casting less than 10 per cent should be denied district representation. Governor Hadley would give each state four delegates-at-large, a plan deviated from now only when the congressional allotment of any state is increased before a new redistricting.

Latin-American Diplomats Present

CHICAGO, June 17.—Many men in the diplomatic service in Latin-American and European countries will be in attendance at the Republican national convention.

The belief that direct reference will be made in the Republican platform to the matter of improving southern trade relations has attracted diplomats from Central and South America.

Ignacio Calderon, from the Panamanian Republic; M. E. Malbran, first secretary of the Argentine Legation, and Frederico Perez, Ambassador from Peru, arrived last night and yesterday.

COUNT von Bernstorff, ambassador from the German Empire, Mitchell Innes, chargé d'affaires of the British Embassy of Washington, and Louis Eustace Percy, secretary of the British Embassy, are also here.

Eduardo Ezcurra, minister from Chile, and Donlco de Gamma, Ambassador from Brazil, were among those expected today.

Three-Year-Old Girl Begins Conquest Early

CHICAGO, June 17.—Margaret Davis Hundley, a three-year-old "Dixie Belle," was the object of much attention last night among many of the wives of delegates to the convention.

The little girl was left in a far-away room to play with her mother, Mrs. Oscar E. Hundley, when they came to Chicago a week ago for the convention. Her parents, George W. Bush, who are charged with attempting to bribe a witness in the Fleming murder trial, was continued today until September 20. The Harmon murder trial is in the way.

ARMY APPROPRIATION BILL VETOED BY THE PRESIDENT

Defeats Plan to Oust General Wood by Joker in Supply Measure

WASHINGTON, June 17.—The President vetoed today the army appropriation bill. He returned the bill to Congress with a message indicating his disapproval of the legislative provision which would oust Major-General Leonard Wood from the office of chief of staff on March 4 next.

In his message the President said:

"The army of the United States is far too vital an institution to the people of this country to be made the victim of hasty or imperfect theories of legislation. As was pointed out by the chairman of the Senate military committee, it is well known that the war college and the general staff have been for many months engaged upon a comprehensive plan of army reorganization.

ADVISES MORE CARE.

"At the present time, therefore, it is especially inappropriate, in my opinion, to force upon the statute books legislation enacted without the usual deliberation and care. I cannot conscientiously surrender the responsibility in shaping such laws with which I am vested under the constitution.

"I therefore return to your honorable body without my approval the said bill."

The President's flat declaration that he was opposed to the enactment of legislation as a rider on an appropriation bill was taken today as an indication that he would also veto the legislative, judicial and executive bill which carries an amendment that would abolish the commerce court.

CHAIRMAN HAY REPLIES.

Chairman Hay of the House military affairs committee issued a statement in which he accused the President of mistaking the facts and resorting to disingenuous arguments. Hay declared the President vetoed the bill to give himself valid reasons for vetoing the legislative bill, which contains the provision to abolish the commerce court.

The President did not veto the bill because of any fault in its appropriation, but because of legislation which Congress had adopted. He declared the practice of attaching legislation to an appropriation bill with the intent of depriving the President of his constitutional power of veto could not be defended.

"Taken as a whole," he said, "it would be hard to conceive of a clearer instance to force upon the executive legislature well known to be disapproved by him and by attaching such legislation to one of the great supply bills of the government, to deprive the President of his constitutional power as to legislation. There can be no constitutional defense to such a practice; on the contrary such attempts have been firmly resisted by my predecessor. In 1879 President Hayes vetoed an army appropriation bill because there had been added to it Congress similar provisions of substantive law."

With twenty-six camp degree teams participating, and 5000 spectators in attendance, the Woodmen of the World laid the cornerstone of their new five-story building yesterday afternoon at Sixteenth and Jefferson streets.

The ceremonies were preceded by a parade in which several thousand participants, a platoon of police leading the way, followed by officers of the day, Major Frank K. Scott, and other city and county officials.

Following the ceremony of raising the flag, and the playing of the national anthem, Master of Ceremonies Derrick introduced Mayor Scott and Head Consul L. I. Bondi, both of whom made brief addresses.

PRAISES LOCAL LODGE.

Head Consul Scott said:

"I am proud to assist in laying and officially dedicating this cornerstone, around which will soon appear a gigantic and massive structure of which every neighbor of the Woodmen of the World and the people of Oakland will be proud. The Woodmen of the World began twenty-two years ago to build homes and temples in which the principles of the order might be taught. You are taking steps to place your lodge at the pinnacle of success. Your energy and determination are praiseworthy."

CORNERSTONE LAID.

The mortar was spread and the cornerstone lowered. The box in the stone contained the following:

O. W. Lincoln cent.

W. O. W. gold official button.

W. O. W. watch fob.

W. O. W. constitution.

W. O. W. gold ring.

Mr. Amund of Kentucky is visiting her nephew Dr. Harry Tevis, at his beautiful home at Alma.

Mr. Amund is renewing old acquaintances of the long ago, when, as Miss Pearl Saunders, she was the constant visitor at the homes of her sisters, Mrs. Lloyd Tevis and Mrs. J. B. Hagglin. Their paternal residences were famous for their hospitality twenty years or more ago, when Taylor stayed at what was then called the residence of the mayor, getting a hearty meal and a good night's sleep.

Another bride of last summer who has returned to California for a visit of several months is Mrs. Ernest Stillman, who arrived Friday from New York, accompanied by Mr. Stillman. They are staying at the Hotel St. Francis, which is close related to Louis L. Hagglin, who is the "Chicken Wizard" of the famous blue grass region, where, instead of being the owner of the goose that laid the golden egg, he is noted as the possessor of a high-priced $1000 rooster and an income of $10,000 from his chicken ranch. Young Hagglin, who is only 24, is the grandson of James B. Hagglin, the New York multi-millionaire, who formerly lived at the corner of Taylor and Washington streets.

Miss Thomas Bishop gave one of the informal luncheons of the past week when her guests were asked to meet Miss Anna Henry, the charming sister of Mrs. E. O. McCormick, who was here for a visit of two or three months.

Besides Mrs. McCormick and Miss Henry, Mrs. Bishop's guests were Mrs. Agnes Lane Leonard, Mrs. Howard Huntington, Mrs. B. McLean and Miss Edwin Hammond.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Parker Whitney and Mrs. Boak, who recently arrived at Hotel Monte Carlo, where they expect to stay all summer, are the latest arrivals.

Miss Vassar yesterday will share the honors of the occasion. She has just completed her second year at college, where she was one of the "Daisy Champs."

Miss Margaret Cassery has taken apartment at the Peninsula Hotel for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Schilling (Alfreda Hamilton) have reached New York on the homeward journey from Europe, where they have been enjoying an extended vacation.

Miss Mary Gayley, who will entertain in honor of Miss Muriel Williams and Walter Ratchiffe, one of the bridal couples of the month, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Vincent Whitney and their little girls, Elizabeth Ann and Beryl, are already at the hotel, which will continue to be their headquarters for some time.

Mr. Jack Cassery left Wednesday for Pasadena, where she expects to spend a week or two visiting her cousin, the Cudahys.

SCHOONER DODGE SAILS FOR HER NORTH RUN

Three-Master Is Chartered by Alaska Company for New Service.

GOVERNMENT TUG TO WATCH FOR CHINESE

Secret Service Men Eager to Learn Whereabouts of Missing Celestials.

The overhauling of the little three-masted schooner Mary Dodge was completed late Saturday night at the local yards of the Pacific Co. and the windjammer was shifted across the bay, to the San Francisco side whence she sailed today for San Pedro. She will touch at San Pedro and after attending to several minor repairs prepare to sail for Nome, Alaska.

The Mary Dodge for the past few years has been a familiar figure on the coast-wise lumber route but with her sailing for the north it is doubtful whether she will ever again be seen on the run. The little windjammer has been chartered by the Alaska Investment and Development Co. For the past few weeks she has been at the yards of the Pacific Co. and accommodations for 100 men have been built aboard the craft which will be occupied by laborers when the vessel makes her passage for the north. The men will be set to work on a colonization project for the investment company.

With her foremast head swept away, the three-masted schooner Charles R. Wilson arrived here yesterday from the Gold River Bay. According to the little windjammer's log the passage was at times rough and during a short southwest blow the foremost head fell to the deck. No other damage was done, however, and the trip was made without further event. The schooner was brought in by Crowley tugs and tied at a berth alongside the Sunset Lumber company's wharf where she is discharging a lumber cargo.

TO WATCH FOR SMUGGLERS. The government tug, Colonel Armed, at the Moore & Scott shipyards undergoing a general overhauling. She is having her hull cleaned and painted while numerous repairs to the electrical plant are being made. The little craft will be ready for commissioning the latter part of the week. According to report the Armed is to be used in the enforcement of laws against smugglers. It is rumored that those in charge of the smuggling operations are making a feint to get through from the Mexican country with the main objective of getting away from the law.

The secret service men have been working hard of late to find what has become of the 75 Chinese who suddenly disappeared from their camp at the southern port of the State. According to report most of this constituency has already entered the State and is quartered in this city and on the San Francisco side. A score of secret service men have been at work here for the last week.

The Pacific Mail liner Mongolia, Captain H. E. Morton, arrived here this morning from San Francisco. She carries 300 cabin and 200 steerage passengers and a 10,000 ton cargo of Oriental freight. The vessel went into quarantine about 10 o'clock and several hours later fled up the Golden Gate. The Mongolia was due here several hours sooner but because of heavy head winds was not able to reach port on her regular schedule.

YALE LEAVES PORT.

The Pacific Navigation company's steamer Yale sailed this morning from the San Francisco side for Los Angeles. The vessel has been on the waves of the Pacific for weeks. In the past few weeks she has been engaged in hauling lumber.

The steam schooners Brunswick, Captain L. L. Lindquist, Fort George is at the San Jose lumber company's wharf discharging a lumber cargo.

The steam schooner Despatch, Captain Fred, sailed yesterday from Dr. F. M. Foy's wharf on the north end of the Long Wharf. The vessel shifted across to the San Francisco side to prepare for a run.

The only arrival at Long wharf today was the steam schooner Bee after freight for the north. The departure were the Washington and Buckman.

COUNCIL ORDERS STREET OPENED

Protests of Two Are Over-Ruled and Work Will Be Started at Once.

The city council this morning overruled protests of J. J. Christian and E. F. McElhatton against the opening of Twenty-fifth avenue, between East Twentieth and East Twenty-second streets, and the opening of the street will now go forward without hindrance. The opening of the street was advocated by the Latham Terrace Improvement Club and F. W. Hayden, president of the club, appeared before the council this morning urging that there be no delay in the proceeding.

J. J. Christian and E. F. McElhatton, owners of lots damaged by the proposed opening, protested that the damages allowed them were not sufficient. After hearing the protestants the protest was overruled.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 17.—Charles N. Hull, who posed as Daniel Hull, son of a millionaire Georgian family, and who "old" this city with him and colored valet, was sentenced to five years at hard labor in San Quentin penitentiary by Superior Judge Cabaniss today. Hull was given the maximum penalty of the law for passing a bogus check on the D. Daniels Laces House on April 26, signed by D. Hull and drawn on the First National Bank in the sum of $513.50.

Hull first attracted attention here by reason of his assumption of wealth as the son of the Daniels Hotel and made such an impression upon a local bank with his automobile and the fact that he owned a lady who was reported to him that he succeeded in getting money advanced on a bogus draft.

This morning he pleaded guilty to the charge against him and when it was shown to the court that he suffered prior conviction for forgery in 1908 the judge refused to be lenient with him.

The distance covered was 683 miles and the aviator had to complete seven times the triangle from Angers to Cholet, from Cholet to Sautumur to Angers.

Garros was the only one of the seven aviators who started in the race yesterday to complete the three legs set down for the first day's task, which he did in seven hours and fifty-six minutes. His time had not been tabulated.

The Situation at Chicago.

The talk of a bolt has about subsided at Chicago. It all came from Roosevelt's friends, and the Colonel is too clever a politician not to discern that he gained nothing by threatening to lead a bolt in case he failed to receive the nomination. Very likely he instructed his followers to cease their heated talk about holding another convention and nominating a rival ticket. At any rate, they have quit talking that way.

Whether an effort will be made to defeat Root for temporary chairman remains to be seen. It will not be made if it does not promise to be successful. The defeat of Root would mean the defeat of Taft for the nomination, for if the opposition to the President can muster enough votes to override the national committee's selection for chairman they have enough votes to prevent Taft's nomination.

In that event the Roosevelt managers are counting on a stampede to the Colonel's standard. They are trying to seduce Taft delegates to join them in the hope of starting a stampede, and they are filling the air with rumors of desertions from Taft's forces to that end.

Root will be presented for temporary chairman nevertheless, and if the choice of the national committee is ratified it will be evidence that Taft's friends are in control of the convention and that the reported breaks in the Taft line are without foundation. Taft's managers appear to be confident that they are holding their lines unbroken and are going ahead with their plans to organize the convention as if they were sure of their ground.

Tomorrow will tell the tale, however. The element of doubt is in the New York delegation rather than in the South. The attitude of Tim Woodruff, who heads the Brooklyn delegation, is somewhat equivocal. If he should lead his forces into the Roosevelt camp, the defection would be serious, if not fatal to Taft's prospects. Woodruff is notoriously tricky, and it would surprise no one if he should desert Taft at the last moment. An unscrupulous trader, he will deliver his goods to whomever he can make the best deal with—for Woodruff. Hence no predictions can be made as to the ultimate result until a poll shows how the New York delegation stands. Of the coterie of former lieutenants of Tom Platt, who now dominate Republican politics in the Empire State, Barnes of Albany and Aldridge of Rochester are zealous partisans of Taft, while William L. Ward of Westchester is for Roosevelt. Woodruff has all along been counted with Barnes and Aldridge, but he is a doubtful quantity at best and his loyalty is open to suspicion. But he is a close friend of Vice-President Sherman, who is counted on to hold him in line for the President.

The situation is so badly mixed that it may be called anybody's fight. It may be Taft, or it may be Roosevelt, or it may be a dark horse.

We regret to read the announcement that Phil Francis has retired from the editorial management of the Stockton Mail. Mr. Francis is a clever writer, honest, perspicacious and forcible in his style of presenting his views. He made the Mail's editorial columns readable and interesting. While THE TRIBUNE often differed with his opinions, it admired the candor, good humor and breezy freedom with which Mr. Francis discussed men and measures. There is nothing mean or petty in his controversial methods, and he was conscientiously unfair. We are not informed as to why he left the Mail, but we are certain he will be missed. He gave the paper a piquant individuality which made it a welcome exchange in editorial sanctums and popular with readers. Wherever he goes Mr. Francis will get an appreciative hearing among newspaper readers.

Regaining a Lost Prestige.

With the announcement during the week just past that the Bohemian Club play of this year, "The Atonement of Pan," will be repeated at the Greek Theater in Berkeley during August for the general public, another step has been taken toward giving California the renown it should have as one of the leading artistic centers of the United States. For years past the club jinks at the grove on the Russian river have been famous among artistic circles throughout the country. Occasionally excerpts from the plays, as in the case of "The Cave Man," have been given in public, notably by David Bispham, and it has been a matter of general regret that only a few privileged guests of the club have been allowed to share in the performances.

It is a fact which must be reluctantly admitted that this section of California has lost within recent years the reputation it held for so long as an artistic center. Appreciation of the best in music and the drama was something which was very real here for many years, from the days of the old California Theater in San Francisco down almost to the time of the fire of 1906. The bay regions had a reputation throughout the east and Europe which was vouchsafed to no other part of the country, unless possibly New Orleans, for love of the really good in art.

With the destruction of the old San Francisco and the changed conditions about the bay attendant on the struggle to rebuild, practically and materially inevitably replaced artistry. Many have been the expressions of regret on the part of recent visitors over the loss of much that made for an art center. This fact is incontrovertible.

But with the re-establishment has come the gradual regain of appreciation. The establishment of a permanent orchestra, plans for auditoriums in Oakland and San Francisco, where opera and concerts can be given, and the renown attaching to the Greek Theater, all are serving to regain for this region its lost prestige.

It is, therefore, particularly appropriate that the Bohemian Club which for so many years has been the gathering ground of local artists and their allies, men of art throughout the country, should take this step which will not only give pleasure to the local public, but will give publicity abroad to new efforts to accomplish something worth while in the realms of the beautiful.

In one breath Teddy's managers say Taft's Southern delegates are a crooked lot who are out for the stuff. In the next they say they have converted them. What is one to think?

THE QUADRENNIAL WHIRLWIND

SAN DIEGO UNION.

Brave Men and Noble Women.

The sublime act of the men who gave their lives in exchange for those of women and children when the Titanic crumpled and sank, is to find fitting recognition at the hands of the nation's women. Mrs. John Hay, widow of the late Secretary of State, is the moving spirit of the Women's Titanic Memorial which is soliciting one dollar from every woman in the country, in order to erect a monument at Washington, D. C., that will perpetuate the memory of men who died like men. Charles Dana Gibson, the artist, has produced a picture that well illustrates the tragedy, and the purpose of those who are seeking to build a tremendous memorial. The picture is that of a young woman, in the garb of a sculptor who stands at the base of the proposed memorial arch, with the palms of suffering and the laurel crowns of victory at her feet. Behind her are the dimly-carved letters on which she is at work. They read: "TO THE MEN WHO GAVE THEIR LIVES THAT WOMEN AND CHILDREN MIGHT BE SAVED." Doubtless, many a dollar will be forwarded to the Women's Titanic Memorial, whose offices are in the Union Trust building, Washington, D. C. This is eminently fitting and proper. The bravery of American men should not outdo the graceful recognition of American women.

Senator Nelson makes the direct charge that the disturbances in Cuba are fomented and financed by plantation owners who desire to see the island annexed to the United States. He says it does not cost much to induce a band of ignorant negroes to burn a few cane mills and ravage a few plantations, which is all that is needed as an excuse to call on the United States to interfere. The Cuban government is called upon to pay for the damage done to mills and plantations and Uncle Sam is asked to intervene for the protection of property owned by American citizens. Moreover, he declares that Cuban plantation owners become citizens of the United States to enable them to claim the protection of Uncle Sam in their own country, and he has moved for an inquiry into the matter. His statements certainly challenge attention and are worthy of investigation. If the plantation owners of Cuba are getting up mock rebellions and uprisings to promote an annexation scheme they should be allowed to stew in their own juice. Our government should not intervene to put down handmade revolts gotten up expressly to give an excuse for intervention.

The election of Meyer Liebner to succeed him as national committeeman is the only answer Governor Johnson has thus far made to George A. Knight's telegram announcing adherence to Roosevelt and placing himself under the Governor's orders. After Knight had voted in the national committee to seat the Roosevelt contestants he was reduced to the ranks. It was a happy fate, no doubt, and Knight probably rejoices that he has been made a martyr to progress.

The building news of Oakland is not so exciting as the political news from Chicago, but it is vastly more interesting and satisfying to the people who inhabit this city. Several large business buildings are now in course of construction, and plans are in preparation for several more. When these building improvements are completed Oakland will have a shopping district that will bear comparison with any city in the country. Residence building is equally active, and street improvements are keeping pace with building. Oakland is in the van of municipal progress. It is a good town to live in and do business in, and it is a good town to grow up with. It is surely the City of Opportunity.

DETERMINATION AND DOING

According to a statement just issued by the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, the death rate from tuberculosis in the United States from 1901 to 1910 declined from 196.9 for each 100,000 persons living to 160.3, a decrease of 15.7 per cent, while the general death rate, including all causes of death, declined only one-half as fast, or at the rate of 9.7 per cent. The decline in the tuberculosis death rate in the last ten years means a saving of 27,000 lives a year at the present time.

The reason for the decline in the number of deaths from tuberculosis is not hard to find. The campaign against this plague has been waged with intelligence and determination. There was a time, not long ago, when it seemed that tuberculosis was forever to be the scourge of the United States. It was held to be incurable. Science went to work on tuberculosis with a determination to conquer it. Physicians all over the country devoted all their time to the study of the disease.

There never was a campaign against disease that enlisted the services of so many brilliant men or in which more intelligence was displayed—Washington Post

JEALOUS HUSBAND KILLS HIS WIFE

Woman Murdered as She
Hands Her Spouse Divorce
Suit Summons.

SAN MATEO, June 17.—Mrs. Victoria Hebert of San Francisco was shot and killed in the United Railroads station yesterday by her husband, Alameda Hebert, as she handed him a summons in her suit for divorce. A few moments before she had offered a reconciliation, but this was spurned and they quarreled.

The couple had been talking together for nearly an hour, when Hebert, after a passage of angry words, pulled a revolver from his pocket and fired four shots, three hitting.

Mrs. Hebert was rushed to the Red Cross hospital here, but died before it could be given her. Mrs. Chester of San Francisco, who disappeared witnessed the shooting.

Recently Mrs. Hebert, who keeps rooming houses at 1277 Geary street in San Francisco, fled a suit for divorce from her husband, al- leging extreme cruelty. A summons directing him to appear in court on July 12 was brought down to San Mateo by Mrs. Hebert in person, and it is assumed that, realizing his failing, she served Hebert with papers.

Receiving them with one hand, he drew a revolver with the other and fired three shots. Two of them struck the woman directly over the heart. She turned and fled, and another shot struck her in the back. She fell to the pavement.

J. W. Wivelbiss, proprietor of a restaurant adjoining the waiting room where the shooting occurred, and J. W. Wilson, a local contractor, rushed to the scene. The police arrived about 100 persons, waiting for news, from the nearby Southern Pacific station heard the shots and hastened to the scene.

RUSHED TO HOSPITAL.

An automobile belonging to E. B. Whitney of this city was pressed into service and the woman taken to the hospital, where Dr. W. C. Chidester pronounced her dead.

Hebert was found in the waiting room in a dazed condition by Constable Michael Sheehan and two other officers. He offered no resistance, and was taken to the county jail at Redwood City. The revolver was found thrust under one of the waiting room seats.

"I deem it my duty as sheriff of this county to recommend that the license of O. N. Nunes, whose saloon in San Leandro is a source of annoyance to the Good Government Club and residents there, was again set over for two weeks for a hearing, it being the sense of the board that no further delay be granted Nunes' attorney, who was not able to be present.

In this connection the following letter was read from Sheriff Barnett:

"I deem it my duty as sheriff of this county to recommend that the license of O. N. Nunes, whose saloon in San Leandro is a source of annoyance to the Good Government Club and residents there, was again set over for two weeks for a hearing, it being the sense of the board that no further delay be granted Nunes' attorney, who was not able to be present.

On the showing that H. D. Knight, a resident of Glenn county, had paid his poll tax in that county May 15, 1907, the sale of the latter's property in the Spring tract for the satisfaction of the supposed non-payment of the tax for that year was ordered rescinded.

CENTERVILLE BONDS.

The high valuation placed by financial interests on the school bonds of this county was exemplified in the eight bids received for the $22,000 school bonds of the Centerville High School. The bid of the Bank of Centerville was accepted as the highest of the following, all with accrued interest: E. H. Rollins, & Co., $48,80; J. H. Adams & Co., $69; N. W. Halsey & Co., $654.20; State Board of Control, $58,20; Bank of Alameda Co., $682; Bank of Centerville, $113,50; William R. Staats Co., $680; Woodmen of the World, $97,93.

JEALOUSY THE CAUSE.

Hebert has been a driver in the employ of a local cork manufacturing concern for about three months. His home has been near Belmont.

Regarding the shooting, he would say nothing beyond the remark that his wife had been friendly with some of his friends and aroused his jealousy. The slain woman was 42 years of age. Hebert is about 50. Hebert speaks very brokenly.

An attempt will be made to locate Mrs. Chester, who accompanied Mrs. Hebert from San Francisco on her errand of peace, as she was the only eye witness of the shooting.

GATES ORDERED DOWN.

The road supervisor was ordered permanently by resolution to remove the gates upon the Lieber ranch, which has long been a subject of dispute. Attorney Welles Whitmore, representing the Ignacio estate, asked for five minutes in which to discuss with the petitioners a possible compromise. This was granted, but the five minutes elapsed without the Ignacio coming forward, and under the guidance of Supervisor Bridge the resolution went through, thus disposing of litigation and disputes that have annoyed the board for over two decades.

The Lieber ranch is in Palomares Road District and is owned by Jose Ignacio, one of the county's earliest settlers.

The new automobile for Sheriff Barnett brought out the following offers: Haynes Motor Sales Company, $3200 ($1200 allowed for old car); Mathewson Sales Company, $414.22 ($750 allowed for old car); A. ## BIG BULL MOOSE CHASES WOMAN

Husband Kills Infuriated Animal Which Escapes From Presever.

PITTSBURG, Mass., June 17.—Mrs. Lawrence Clement was leaving her house at Becket a big bull moose suddenly appeared in the front yard and charged her into the barn. She was so frightened she fell to the barn floor in a faint.

Mr. Clement, who is a constable, was nearby and hastened by a back route to the house for his shotgun. He killed the moose as it darted for a thicket.

The moose weighed at least 1000 pounds. Mrs. Clement was under the care of a physician today. It is believed the moose is one that escaped from Harry Payne Whitney's preserve on October mountain last fall.

SNAKES NO MATCH FOR PLUCKY WOMEN

PHILADELPHIA, June 17.—Snakes big black fellows, with a few rattlers by way of variety, have appeared in such numbers in lower Bucks county, that residents of that section will not venture out now unless armed with a club or some other weapon of defense. The black snakes have shown a particular fondness for the families of Henry Long and Harvey Willauer, who live near Long, both in the same house.

Mrs. Willauer was about to leave the house on Saturday about noon, when she saw a blacksnake coiled near the door.

She called to Miss Kate Long and when she came to the reptile, which was as big as long, an hour or so later Long killed another of the same size within twenty feet of the first. Yesterday Long killed a third snake. It had coiled itself on the porch and dropped to the ground directly in front of him.

At Almost a few days ago a woman killed a rattlesnake. With her children she was crossing a rocky field and heard the rattle. She threw her children backward and with a large stone ended the snake's life.

WOMAN LUNATIC FOUND IN BATH

Modest Millionaire Sends for Assistance to Oust Visitor.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., June 17.—Too modest to disturb a lady while she was taking her bath, John Miles, millionaire milliner, with an establishment on Fifth avenue, New York, and one of the biggest property owners in this village, today waited until he could get Dr. William L. Russell, superintendent of Blomdingdale Asylum, on the phone before he would attempt to dislodge from one of his vacant houses Agnes Clowes, an escaped lunatic. She had been missing from the institution since Friday.

Miss Clowes went readily with T. D. Ferris and a nurse who came from the asylum for her, and said she was glad to go back, although she says she would not have done so had she not been hungry.

She said she slipped away from her attendant while exercising in the asylum grounds, and that she wanted to go to her home in New York because she was homesick. She comes of a wealthy family of New York city, the men members of which have been prominent in the banking business.

TURKEY EATS OWN EGGS TO KEEP FROM STARVING

Brookman owns a flock of turkeys. Two months ago one of them disappeared. This morning he dug into a haystack, and found an emaciated turkey, which he recognized as the missing member of his flock. Scattered around the turkey were the shells of 42 eggs. When the boy's ears had been almost cut off in his efforts to free his head from the can.

He was competing with Jennie Chandler and lifted her right foot so far that she fell over backward against a table, which toppled over upon her as she sat on the floor.

She fractured her right arm and severely bruised her head. She was also

NURSE KILLS HERSELF WHEN DISMISSED FROM NEW YORK HOSPITAL

"I Simply Could Not Stand Disgrace," Santa Barbara Girl Writes.

EW YORK, June 17.—Florence Weston of Santa Barbara, Cal., who came to this city two years ago to be a trained nurse in the Nurses' School of the Post-Graduate Hospital on West Twentieth street, ended her life some time Saturday in the Hotel Astor. Beside her body, which was discovered last night, was a note saying that she had killed herself because she could not bear the disgrace of having been dismissed from the hospital for an infraction of the rules.

Miss Weston came to the Hotel Astor Friday afternoon from the hospital immediately following her dismissal. Hotel men noticed her as she went out on Saturday morning, and that was the last seen of her alive. At 9 o'clock last evening entrance to the room was made by a pass key and the girl's body was found lying on the bed.

On the dresser were found two glasses, one of them containing plain water, and in the other was a solution. Crystallized cyanide of potassium was beside the glass, some of which the girl had evidently dissolved.

There were four letters on the table by her side, two of them sealed. The sealed letters were stamped and addressed to "Miss Florence Weston, Santa Barbara, Cal." and "Miss Stevens, Training School for Nurses, Post-Graduate Hospital." There was an open letter to the coroner which read:

"I am Florence Weston of Santa Barbara, Cal. I have been a pupil nurse at the Post-Graduate Hospital for Nurses for two years, and resigned Friday. I do this cowardly act because I was forced to resign from the school after working so hard, with eight months of night study. I simply could not stand disgrace. This was the only way out. I want my body cremated."

Another open letter read:

"To whom it may concern," and reads: "I came to New York from California two and half years ago. I think I have been a success. I am 25 years old. My people live in California. Don't make this public. So sorry to make all this trouble, but it was the only course."

Cupid Too Slow

LOS ANGELES, June 17.—The march of progress proved too much for Cupid yesterday when the telegraph, a Mercury-footed messenger, and a mile-a-minute motorcycle cop collaborated to defeat a special matinée engagement.

The matinée of "Madame Du Barry" landed behind the bar. Miss Désirée Green, pretty juvenile daughter of L. S. Green, wealthy rancher and hotel owner of Indio, and her prospective husband, Oscar Cheatham, also related to landholders of means.

The couple decided to slope and Miss Green packed her suitcase, hid it in the yard and at midnight jumped out of her window into the arms of Cheatham. They ran to the railroad station and caught a train for this city.

Papa Green, with the first streaks of daylight, discovered the defection and got busy on the wire. A Western Union messenger broke all records getting his telegram to the police station and three minutes before the Indio train was due the description was placed in the hands of a motorcycle officer Kierscay. Kierscay got to the station just as the pair was alighting and placed them under arrest.

Miss Williams will have in her bridal party Miss Florence and Miss Corona Williams, Miss Dorothy Woodworth, Miss Isabel Beaver, Miss Mary Gayley and Miss Marian Crocker.

Miss Poorman's marriage will be a military affair and many from the army and navy set from across the bay will attend. The attendants will include Miss Louise Farishworth, Miss Edith Sullivan, Miss Louisa Tillman, Miss Helen Sullivan and Mrs. Frederick Lockwood.

Get Their Man

CINCINNATI, June 17.—An unhappy romance which overshadowed what promised to be a brilliant career came to a close a few days ago, with the death of Charles Sherman Hoyt at Sausalito, Marin county, Calif. For more than forty years this son of one of New England's most distinguished families lived the life of a hermit, perfectly at home in the ranch house miles from the nearest habitation. He was the son of Judge Ebenezer Rockwood Hoyt and a nephew of Senator Hoar.

In his college days at Harvard Hoyt fell in love with a New England girl, but when the class of 1870 reached commencement time his friends were surprised by the announcement that he had determined to go to the Far West. Only his family and those closest to him knew that his love affair had come to a disastrous end.

The fugitive ran through West Sixth avenue, Baymiller avenue, Freeborn avenue, and other West End thoroughfares, the women closed in on him. Near the Southern bridge they caught up with him, Gallagher and pounced on him, and turned him over to the police.

As the fugitive ran through West Sixth avenue, Baymiller avenue, Freeborn avenue, and other West End thoroughfares, the women closed in on him. Near the Southern bridge they caught up with him, Gallagher and pounced on him, and turned him over to the police.

Gallagher tore himself from their grasp and made another dash for liberty. He soon tripped over a piece of wire in the street and fell heavily, permitting both the girls to again seize him.

Muffles Baby

SHAMOKIN, Pa., June 17.—Six-year-old Helen Misoky yesterday, tiring of the cries of her brother Joseph, 2 years old, whom she was caring for during the temporary absence of her mother, pushed an empty can tightly over his head until the rim touched his neck.

She said she slipped away from her attendant while exercising in the asylum grounds, and that she wanted to go to her home in New York because she was homesick. She comes of a wealthy family of New York city, the men members of which have been prominent in the banking business.

NUTS ARE NUTRITIOUS

By LILLIAN RUSSELL

(Copyright, 1912, Lillian Russell.)

OR years nuts have been considered only as a dessert or after-dinner relish, and the general opinion has always been that they were indigestible. Today all that has changed and nuts are now considered the richest, strongest and most concentrated of foods. For years the Italian peasants have used chestnuts as a food in as common a manner as we use flour and potatoes, or as the Japanese and Chinese use rice. The Italians boil chestnuts and mash them up into a porridge for breakfast, and for noon dinner they grind them into meal and bake bread or make cake out of this meal. Together with salad and fruit, chestnuts are at certain times of the year the only food of the hard-working Italian peasants, which proves that we have been overlooking the value of the chestnut, hickory, pecan and walnut. Hickory nuts are especially a muscle-building product and are of great value to girls and boys when in athletic training. Peanuts are a positive cure for insomnia when eaten at night without other foods, although the old-fashioned idea has been that they were indigestible. The standard of the digestive and assimilative capacity of mankind today is exceedingly low. One must live up to a nut diet if it is undertaken, but nuts are curative and a beautifier.

A prominent physician in New York, who makes a specialty of filling out and beautifying thin, cadaverous women, uses the nut diet with salads, raw vegetables and fruits only, and I must say that he turns out wonderful results. One proof of the nutrition found in nuts is illustrated in the sinew and strength of the gorilla, monkey, squirrel and parrot. In California and Florida there are immense industries in the cultivation of pecans and walnuts, proving the need of them. America grows the finest pecans in the world, and what is more delicious than a thin slice of bread and butter with a layer of pecans over it. Roasting renders certain nuts more digestible for frail humanity—chestnuts, peanuts, filberts and almonds. Stout people must abjure the nut diet; in fact, nuts are so nourishing that stout people should never touch them at all. The pecans are full of oil, and if eaten daily as a food will add a pound a week to the weight of any one. Thin people who want to fill out the hollows in their necks and cheeks should have walnuts or pecans every day and eat them freely, and be grateful for nuts containing as they do the most delicious flavors and needing no sugar or salt to improve them.

We could take many lessons from the wise little squirrels. The South Americans use the cocoanuts as food and drink also. They consider cocoanut milk an antidote for fever and summer heat. The South American women wash their faces in the milk of the cocoanut to clear and beautify the skin and complexion. Remember, why eat foreign cooking when we have so many wonderful natural foods at our door?

HURRICANE BATTERS BARKENTINE NEAR PORT HAWAII BADLY DAMAGED IN STORM

Upper Works Torn and Six Sails Hang in Tatters After Gale.

Ship Reaches Harbor and Is Almost Carried on Rocks by the Tide.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 17.—With six sails hanging in tatters and battered upperworks, the barkentine Hawaii, from Makukona, H. I., was glad to make port here today. About 20 miles west of the Farallones yesterday afternoon, the Hawaii was caught in a hurricane that touched a velocity of 100 miles an hour. Captain Winkinder had to be lashed to the wheel.

Weathering the storm, the barkentine ran for the Gate before a stiff breeze until, just off Lime Point, the wind failed utterly and the strong ebb tide nearly carried her onto the rocks. The storm was not felt here.

'CRAZY SNAKE' IS WILY OLD CHIEF

Indian Baffles Assessors of Oklahoma in Effort to Tax Him.

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 17.—"Where is crazy, snake?" is the question the tax assessors in that part of the old Creek nation, once inhabited by the Crazy Snake branch of the Creek Indians, are asking where ever lands in that region belonging to the Snake and some of his personal property, but for tax-collecting purposes it is necessary that he be identified and returned by some person competent to act for the wily old chief.

The power of the state to tax Indian lands is being tested in the United States courts. In the meantime, the assessors are instructed to place the Indian property, except that which is specially exempted on the tax rolls.

Crazy Snake has indeed carried on several years recently in his country. After the last one was quelled, many of the Indians had taken to the hills. Crazy Snake disappeared. William Tilghman, now city marshal, but for many years one of the most noted officers of the southwest, was dispatched to the Creek country with a warrant for Crazy Snake, but he could not be found. Some of his comrades said he had gone to Washington to appeal to the president; others said he had fled into Mexico. There is a standing reward for his apprehension.

Crazy Snake has been advised by lawyers that the state had no authority over the person or property of Indians, and he himself has dreamed of the dawn of another era like that out of which civilization is trying to bring his people. He has sworn that he never will consent to the government set up by the state. Many of his followers, however, have departed from his teachings, and for two years there has been peace in the Snake Indian country.

WILMINGTON, Del., June 17.—When John A. Anderson, aged 48 years, a widower and a contractor of Irvland, Bucks county, Pa., and Elizabeth Lukens, aged 48 years, of the same place, who said she was a widow, arrived in Philadelphia and found the marriage license bureau closed, they came to this city and were married late last night by the Rev. George L. Wolfe.

They did not arrive here until after 10 o'clock, and they procured a license after routing a magistrate from bed. Mr. Wolfe was also called from bed to perform the ceremony.

WESTCOTT TO NAME WOODROW WILSON
SENATOR GORE TO SECOND NOMINATION

JOHN J. MARTIN, SERGEANT-AT-ARMS OF THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION TO BE HELD AT BALTIMORE

Plans Being Perfected for Holding of Democratic Convention at Baltimore

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Senator Gore of Oklahoma, who returned from conference with Democratic leaders at Baltimore, will second the nomination of the Baltimore convention of Governor Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey, which will be held by John Westcott of Camden, N. J.

TALK OF "DARK HORSES."
BALTIMORE, June 17.—"Dark horses" boom for the Democratic presidential nomination were informally discussed here today by national committee men. The boomers were for Mayor Gaynor of New York and Governor Eugene N. Foss of Massachusetts.

Whether the movement in behalf of Mayor Gaynor is being encouraged by Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, could not be learned here, but those directing the Wilson campaign said they had been informed that Leader Murphy thought New York should make no choice for President until after the Chicago convention. The movement for Governor Foss was launched by Frank Hendrick of New York, who said that Governor Foss' platform was the immediate reduction of the tariff and reciprocity with Canada.

Regarding the repeated reports that the New York, Indiana and Illinois delegations would unite to make the presidential nomination, committeeman Sullivan of Illinois remarked: "Illinois delegates will vote as a unit and continue to vote throughout the convention. We are for Clark."

Headquarters for Speaker Champ Clark and Governor Wilson were opened today.

HALL NOT ONLY MEETING PLACE.
BALTIMORE, June 17.—Only part of the work accomplished by the Democratic National Convention, which opens on June 25th, will be performed in the convention hall. The results will appear there, but before these results are attained lights will burn far into the night at various hotel and office buildings throughout the city, where conventions headquarters have been established by the national organization and the organizations supporting the candidates for president.

Next to the rooms engaged by the national committee, the largest reservation at the Belvedere has been made by Thomas Taggart, national committeeman from Indiana. For the members of his committee and his friends Mr. Taggart has taken 60 rooms in the main buildings, with accommodations for 65 persons more in the Annex and the "Blue Parlor" on the second floor at State delegation headquarters. Other national committees in whose name large reservations have been made at the Belvedere are Roger C. Sullivan, Illinois; Homer S. Cummings, Connecticut; J. B. Kremer, Montana; A. J. Daly, Alaska; Alvan Adams, Colorado; Edwin O. Wood, Michigan; Clark Howell, Georgia; J. M. Guyer, Pennsylvania; Willard Saulsbury, Delaware; Urey Wilson of Kentucky, secretary of the national committee, and Herman Ridder of New York, its treasurer, also have their headquarters here.

TO ARRIVE EARLY.
Representatives of the candidates for the presidential nomination will be on the ground, and all of them engaged their headquarters months ago. Several of them have taken suites of offices in the downtown business section, as well as large blocks of rooms in the principal hotels. The Clark campaign committee has offices in the Munsey building, corner Calvert and Fayette streets. Governor Harmon's managers have a suite in the Equitable building, across the street, and the Wilson committee has leased an entire small building at No. 10 East Lexington street.

A political convention is a law unto itself, without leaders and committees to plan their work the great body of delegates could make little headway, but even the most astute leaders cannot always know when the delegates will upset carefully prepared routine. Nevertheless, until the delegates ballot and one of the candidates receives the two-thirds vote necessary for nomination, those who are trying to learn in advance what the result will be will watch these headquarters.

CONVENTION LIKE GREAT ENGINE.
A national convention has been likened to a great engine in which the fly wheel is the national committee, the governors the committee on credentials and resolutions and the fuel is the body of delegates which supply the motive power, controlled and regulated by these three committees.

The actual work of the convention started here when members of the national committee began to arrive. This committee consists of 52 members, one from each State and from Alaska, District of Columbia, Hawaii and Porto Rico. Its quarters are at the Hotel Belvedere, situated in the Mt. Royal district, within walking distance of the convention hall. The two top floors of the Belvedere have been engaged by the committee, including the Munsey and Equitable buildings. The Wilson committee has the banquet hall and parlor of the mezzanine floor and 14 bedrooms. The Harmon men have 15 sleeping-rooms and a parlor on the mezzanine floor for their meetings. Two of the notable figures in Baltimore who will be present during the convention will be William J.

TWO ATTEMPTS ARE MADE BY FIREBUG

Culprit Seeks Destruction of San Francisco Grocer's Property.

Lives of Family Are Endangered in Second Blaze.

SAFETY. SAN FRANCISCO, June 17.—Two incendiary attempts to destroy the grocery store and property of C. E. Scott at Geary street and Thirtieth ave., one of which occurred yesterday afternoon, and the other at an early hour this morning, have caused the police and Fire Marshal Towe to investigate.

Although the blaze yesterday was far the more serious from the standpoint of property loss this morning's fire almost cost the lives of four occupants of a rear cottage the property of George E. Orr. That someone was not killed or slightly burned was due to the bravery of Corporal of Police Fred Groat, who awoke the occupants and carried a mother and daughter to safety.

The grocery store of Scott was gutted yesterday causing a loss of several thousand dollars and there was no pressure in the mains and little water for the firemen to use until the Spring Valley Water Company had been asked by telephone to put on pressure. By that time the flames had gained good headway and the building was almost destroyed. In sympathy for Scott, Orr offered him the use of a small building standing in front of his home nearby. Scott gratefully accepted the hospitality, moved in the stock that was saved, procured some additional goods and was ready to open up this morning.

FIRE STARTS AGAIN.

Just before daylight flames were discovered, not in the temporary grocery, but in a cottage in the rear of the Orr home occupied by J. Sweeney and wife and Mrs. A. Abrahams and her daughter. Smoke was pouring from the windows and flames leaping from the roof when Corporal Groat, who lives near by, dashed in, awakened the Sweeneys and carried forth Mrs. Abraham and her daughter to safety.

The firemen had a similar difficulty for lack of water and the loss was almost complete. The fire marshal and the officers of the Richmond station found that clothing had been saturated with oil and left near the building, and that oil had been poured on the woodwork. The presence of an incendiary was therefore absolutely shown.

It is the theory of the marshal who had been investigating the fire of the afternoon previous that that, too, was set by a firebug and that someone having a grudge against Scott was responsible. It is likely that a mistake was made and the belief of the incendiary was that the goods were stored in the Sweeney home instead of the small building in front.

George E. Orr owner of the property burned this morning, is being held by the police pending an investigation.

REAL TWIN 'DAUGHTER OF REVOLUTION' DIES

HASTINGS, Mich., June 17.—Mrs. Julia Ann Domaray of Woodland, one of the only surviving real twin daughters of the American Revolution, is dead of paralysis. She was eighty years old. Her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Russell, of Lake Odessa, Mich., survives her. Their father, John Peter Frank, enlisted in Philadelphia, and served through the Revolution. After the war he removed to Canada, where he married an English woman. The twins were born when he was seventy-eight years of age.

Next to the rooms engaged by the national committee, the largest reservation at the Belvedere has been made by Thomas Taggart, national committeeman from Indiana. For the members of his committee and his friends Mr. Taggart has taken 60 rooms in the main buildings, with accommodations for 65 persons more in the Annex and the "Blue Parlor" on the second floor at State delegation headquarters. NURSES MUST NOT LOVE PATIENTS, ONE SAYS

CHICAGO, June 17.—Members of the American Nurses' Association have been told by Miss Bertha W. Allen of Newton Lower Falls, that a sunny disposition is of the highest value to a nurse, but that the nurse must not allow herself any other emotions, particularly that she must not allow her sunny disposition to evolve into an affection of the heart regarding the patient.

She should consider only her work, direct Miss Allen, and disregard brusque directions from physicians and tender remarks from patients.

HUSBAND USES AX ON TRESSES OF WIFE

SCRANTON, Pa., June 17.—Purified by her husband, who at times beats her with an ax, Mrs. John O'Hara jumped the fence in the back yard but her bowie knife caught in a nail in the top board. O'Hara made a vicious swing with the ax, but the blow fell short and severed the woman's tresses as clean as if done with a barber's scissars. O'Hara then fled to the mountains.

COMMISSION MEETS TONIGHT.

BERKELEY, June 17.—Ten-year-old August O'Connor proved his superiority over 104 school mates yesterday afternoon in the games at St. Joseph's academy at Peralta park. Pitied against many an older lad and handicapped by a racing toothache, he came off the field at the end of the games with the gold medal awarded annually to the best company captain, pinned to his breast as a mark of previous. B. Hennessy's captain won the pennant for the best company in the meet. Other companies finished as follows:

Company 3, P. Zerio, captain; second; Company 4, J. Herter, captain; third; Company 2, E. Lydon, captain; fourth; Company 5, August O'Connor, captain, fifth.

The meet was under the general direction of Professor Otto Zittler, superintendent of gymnastics of the college formerly prominent in Redwood club games. Settled up, the games were comprised in the program, as well as marching, counter-marching and other maneuvers.

Another matter of interest to Methodists generally was the decision refusing at this time to grant the request of negro members of the church to appear in colored schools, who would have jurisdiction over all races in his district. A compromise was finally effected whereby the question of whether a colored bishop should be appointed to the Negro church over the white people alone, was referred to the state conference. If this is acted upon favorably it will pave the way for Chinese and Japanese bishops, who will direct the Methodists of their race in the setting up and horizontal bar exercises. Dr. Dietz, for years a prominent Y. M. C. A. physical culture expert, taught Thomas of the San Joaquin police department, and Colonel Harris of the Presidio staff acted as judges.

In addition to the medal won by O'Connor and the company pennant, a silver medal and exaltsion belt was awarded to Captain Alfonso Herreras. Another gold medal and three silver medals for individual work are still to be awarded.

The annual examinations are being held this afternoon. This evening the annual election contests will be held for the gold medal. Those to compete will be William Keay, John McCormick, Rev. Brother A. Leo, Albert St. John, C. J. Peckers and Milton Delmore, winner of the medal last year. Rev. Brother Z. Leo, professor of English, and Colonel Harris of the college, Oakland, will be the chief judges.

The annual banquet of the academy will be held tomorrow evening. The results of the various examinations will be announced.

Brother Valavanis will be the chief speaker. Among the others to respond to toasts will be Captain Robert E. Lydon, president of the St. Joseph's Athlete association.

The annual athletic exercises of the school will be held Tuesday, June 25. An interesting program is being prepared for that occasion.

Final passage was given the ordinance closing loan offices and junk shops in Oakland every night, except Saturday, at six o'clock, and closing these businesses all day Sunday, by the city council this morning. The ordinance does not become effective until July 1.

The early-closing ordinance has been before the city council for some weeks, having been brought before the commissioners by several of the pawnshop proprietors and by the Retail Clerks' Association and many well-known merchants. The ordinance was opposed by about half the number of dealers and shops affected by it.

GRASS FIRE SEASON OPENS.
ALAMEDA, June 17.—The firemen were kept fairly busy yesterday with grass fires, which were set for a picnic burning rubbish and grass at the William Pritchard home at 1901 Chestnut street. A second was set for a grass fire on Fernside avenue, east of Park street. Several other fires were called to Lafayette street and Eagle avenue by a third grass fire. None of the fires did any special damage.J. G. Kearney Prepares to Act
Under Recent Decision of Supreme Court.

ALAMEDA, June 17.—Following the recent decision of the California supreme court in the case of the city of Berkeley against J. G. Kearney in regard to a barb wire fence the land which was in dispute for several years and which has been declared by the court to belong to Kearney, right up to the ocean. So far only the poles of the new fence are up. A watchman is guarding these poles to prevent squatters or others from tearing them up.

The watchman is also supposed to prevent trespassing on the property. It is figured that warning by the watchman will be sufficient and that no overt act on the part will take place.

Kearney announced that as soon as the property is enclosed the trespass law will be strictly enforced and that evicting papers will be secured under a superior court judgment, just as the original Arkers before but an appeal to the supreme court was taken and the matter left in abeyance until the higher court rendered its decision.

A fence encloses a piece of land 600 feet long by 100 feet deep, embracing something over an acre of ground. No tides are included in this piece of land but Kearney has leased the land to the town of Alameda, so and will later enforce the trespass law on both owned and leased lands.

There are several arkers living either on this piece of land or in the tides. Among the booths houses involved in this latest move is one owned by Mrs. H. J. Platts, president of the Lincoln Park Mothers' club.

Miss Kearney said, regarding that if the arkers came on to the high ground, that they would be guilty of trespass and would be prosecuted against under the law. She added that the guard would shoot to enforce trespass orders.

The property was fought for by both arkers and Kearney for several years, Kearney acquiring the property from former Mayor W. K. Taylor. Recently the city of Alameda, moving to protect the municipality's water front rights, laid claim to the water front property in this section, but W. K. Taylor said that the city has not the slightest claim on the San Leandro bay frontage, which figures in this dispute.

HIGHWAYMAN BERATES
HIS PENNLESS VICTIM

Disgusted at finding that Manuel Fezz, a milk wagon driver of Forty-eighth avenue and East Fourteenth street, did not have even a copper cent piece or a piece of jewelry on his person, a masked bandit who held up Fezz with a big revolver at an early hour this morning soundly berated his intended victim, and finally stole two bottles of cream to recompense himself for the trouble he had taken to kidnap the milkman.

"You're a bum piker," the robber told Fezz. "I'm sorry. I bothered you with such a mutt. But I'm going to have something, and I'll take some."

Pocketing his revolver, the bandit tucked two bottles of cream under his arm and walked away down the street, leaving a contemptuous back upon his intended victim. Fezz reported the matter to the police, and received the congratulations of the night sergeant that he had not carried any money with him.

HARRY RICHARDSON, 2718 Grove street, reported to the police this morning that thieves stole a pair of men's shoes valued at $4 from his dressing room while he was playing baseball.

NOT BUSINESS, THEFT.

ALAMEDA, June 17.—The Rev. H. L. Millington, pastor of the Beaville Methodist Episcopal Church, today furnished the ball in the sum of $500 for the next term of criminal court, as the result of charges of assault and battery preferred against him.

The trouble arose out of the pastor's alleged efforts to preserve the Sabbath calm and prevent the indulgence of boys in roller skating on the first day of the week. The charges in the case were preferred by John Horn, who alleges that his son, Albert Horn, was assaulted by the man of the cloth.

It seems that on last Sunday a number of boys of the neighborhood were roller skating in front of the parsonage at the hour when the pastor usually comes over his evening sermon. The boys were warned to stop their skating and finally, it is alleged, the outraged clergyman rushed from the house and took after his tormentor. He succeeded in catching John Horn, and it is alleged that after catching the boy he threw him to the sidewalk with such violence as to cause painful injuries.

OLD MOSE, AGED 275,
SOON TO BREAK FAST.

ST. LOUIS, June 17.—In conversation with Superintendent Bean of the Zoo last night, Old Mose, the Zoo's pet young (?) alligator of some 275 summers and various hard and hungry winters, deplored the fact that it would soon again become necessary to quit the park's main menagerie and resume his yearly period of strenuous—the eating habit—in the outing.

Mose, as he is familiarly addressed by his intimates, is soon to take up his outdoor quarters in the lake just south of the menagerie. It may be said in passing that this delicate creature enjoyed his last square meal last September. Alligators generally eschew the eating habit during the winter months and the four reptiles now occupying joint space along with Mose are no exceptions to this rule.

As he lay, calmly basking in the sunlight of his friend, Mose casually asked after the health of Kitty, the big tigress, who is the mother of these three lusty newborn cubs.

"Strange, is it not," queried Mose, "that those big cats make such poor mothers?"

"Why, only think of it, about 150 years ago, when I married my first wife down in the Florida everglades, she could not devote enough time and attention to our brood of children, even going so far as to soundly thrash an overzealous 'cotton mouth' for causing one of them annoyance. Times," continued Mose, "are slowly but surely changing. What with the women suffrage movement in jungieland and other equally unfeminine features of our class things are slowly approaching their decadence."

MAN SNOOZES, COSTS
HIM $20 PER MINUTE

PASSAIC, N. J., June 17.—It cost Maurice Morris, a silo manufacturer of Paterson, just $20 a minute to sleep on a White Line trolley car passing through the Hackensack meadows last night.

He had spent the day in New York, and had purchased two large bundles of fine silk, valued at $600. About 10 o'clock he was in a crowded car at Hoboken. He dozed off, and as the trolley turned through the meadowland he fell asleep. Fifteen minutes later the conductor aroused him to collect the fare to Passaic.

Mr. Morris then found that one of his bundles, worth $300, had been stolen. The conductor remembered that five minutes before three men who sat beside Mr. Morris left the car, one carrying a package similar to that still in Mr. Morris's possession.
